Alfred R. Berkeley, III joins MPT Foundation Board of Directors

Owings Mills, MD — The MPT Foundation, Inc. has announced the appointment of Alfred R. Berkeley, III to its volunteer board of directors.

The MPT Foundation, Inc. is the 501(c) (3) fundraising affiliate of Maryland Public Television (MPT). Incorporated in 1981 as the Maryland Public Broadcasting Foundation, Inc., the foundation today comprises approximately two dozen members drawn from Maryland business, civic, and cultural communities to assist MPT in securing private contributions and foundation grants.

Berkeley is chairman of Princeton Capital Management LLC and Noxilizer, Inc., and vice-chairman of Gentag, Inc. He is a director of Realpage, Inc. and Business Executives for National Security, and a member of the University of Maryland School of Medicine's Board of Visitors. He also is a trustee of Allen University, a historically black university.

He currently serves as an adviser to Cyber Reliant, Security ScoreCard, VIBE CyberSecurity International, LLC, AgilePQ, Inc., Chesapeake Outward Bound School, XBRL US, and Health Benefits App.

Berkeley previously served as president and then vice-chairman of the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc., and was chairman of Pipeline Financial Group. He was a trustee of Johns Hopkins University and a board member of the Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory LLC. He also was a director of the World Economic Forum USA and The Nature Conservancy.

He served as vice-chair of the National Infrastructure Advisory Council for President Bush and President Obama.

Berkeley earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia and an MBA from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. He served as a captain in the 438th Military Airlift Wing of the United States Air Force from 1968 to 1972, and then as a major in the U.S. Air Force Reserve from 1978 to 1980.

He resides in Cockeysville, Maryland.
