

Anne West

Anne brings to MPT an extensive history of community service and support of the arts in Maryland. A former staff member of the Maryland State Arts Council (MSAC), she was also appointed vice-chair of the MSAC by former Gov. Larry Hogan and held that post from 2016-2022. She currently serves as secretary of the Board of Trustees of Baltimore County Public Library. In addition to her work with the MSAC, Anne worked in communications and public relations roles for T. Rowe Price, the Kennedy Krieger Institute, and the Office of Mayor William Donald Schaefer. She is married to State Senator Christopher West. They reside in Towson.

Anne has been an MPT member since 1987 and joined the Leadership Society in 2021.

Kathryn Lindquist

Kathryn brings to MPT a career in marketing and international trade plus experience with numerous nonprofit board appointments. She is the former Chief Marketing Officer and Principal of a Washington, DC-based energy and infrastructure financial advisory firm, a senior international trade specialist for the State of Maryland, the marketing and sales representative in Paris, France for a Texas-based medical supply manufacturing company, and a high school educator in France and the US. She is a Council member for the Board of the Medstar Montgomery Medical Center in Maryland, the founder of the Terry Newendorp Environmental Scholarship Program, and is currently involved in philanthropic activities with Hope Connections for Cancer Support, the Ruesch Center for GI Cancer at Georgetown Hospital, and the Thunderbird School of Global Management of Arizona State University.

Kathryn is the former MPT Foundation Board Vice-Chair and the current Member of the MPT Foundation Board's Fundraising and Governance Committees.