Maryland Public Television earns four Capital Emmy® Awards

OWINGS MILLS, MD – The National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS-NCCB) presented Maryland Public Television (MPT) with four Emmys during its 65th Capital Emmy® Awards ceremony on Saturday, June 24.

NATAS-NCCB comprises television industry professionals dedicated to fostering and recognizing outstanding achievements in television production in Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. Its annual Capital Emmy Awards competition acknowledges excellence in areas including entertainment programs, news and documentary shows, and sports programming.

Over the course of its more than 50-year history, MPT – the statewide public television network – has earned 196 Capital Emmys out of 454 total nominations. MPT has also earned the Board of Governors Award (the chapter’s highest honor), and four national Emmy Awards.

After garnering 20 nominations this year, MPT received Capital Emmy Awards in the following categories:
