

FCC License Renewal POST-FILING on-air spot script: REVISED

On September 27, 2012, WCPB, WFPT, WGPT, WMPB and WWPB were granted licenses by the Federal Communications Commission.

On September 25, 2017 WMPT was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission.

All are to serve the public interest as a public trustee until October 1, 2020.

Our licenses will expire on October 1, 2020.

We have filed an application for license renewal with the FCC.

A copy of this application is available for public inspection in the station's online public file at www.fcc.gov.

It contains information concerning the station's performance during the current license term.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by September 1, 2020.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at Maryland Public Television, 11767 Owings Mills Blvd., Owings Mills, MD, 21117, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.
